

Prayer Center in Sanctuary

This prayer center is specifically dedicated to those who have family and friends in service with the military, at home or abroad, and for civilians who are working war-torn places in our world. We encourage you to provide the names and contact information (if possible) for the individuals you would like us to keep in our prayers, along with your contact information so that we can stay updated about those for whom you are requesting prayers.

Foundry Job Corps

With the new Administration team in place we are eager to revive the "Foundry Job Corps", a group that undertakes relatively unskilled maintenance projects such as painting in our building. The tentative schedule is to work one Saturday afternoon per month. If you are interested in participating, please contact Mike Crosswell (mcrosswell@usaid.gov) or Stan Wellborn (wellborn@rff.org)

Mission: Jana Meyer

202.332.4010 ext. 215 or jmeyer@foundryumc.org

Great Day of Service!

We are now planning our next Great Day of Service, which will be on Saturday, October 16th. The next planning meeting will be on Wednesday, August 4th. E-mail Amihan Jones at ajones@foundryumc.org if you are interested in planning or organizing the great event!

Mustard Seed Mission

Come prepare and cook food for the hungry with us on August 14 as we volunteer at D.C. Central Kitchen from 9:00 AM to noon! There are limited spots available, so sign up by e-mailing Amihan Jones at ajones@foundryumc.org.

Haiti VIM Applications Available

Information and applications for Foundry's VIM trip to Haiti February 18-24 2011 are available from Leigh Carter at leighellen7@aol.com or Jana Meyer. The applications are due by August 31.

VIM Trip to NC

A Foundry Volunteers in Mission (VIM) team will repair homes in Goldsboro, NC October 9-15, 2010. Join the team! All skill levels are needed. www.merciumc.org. Cost of the trip will be about $250. Contact Jim Walker by phone at 202-543-5837 or email jim_walker@hotmail.com to sign up.

Susanne Wesley House Volunteers

Have spare time during the day? Retired or semi-retired? Like to work around the house? Susanna Wesley House, a transitional living program located in Northeast DC, is looking for volunteers to help coordinate our home's day-to-day maintenance needs. Email Chris Collins at ccollins@c2fripp.com or Brenda Edwards at edwardsb@mail.nih.gov.

Congregational Life: Dee Lowman & Bob McDonald

202.332.4010 ext. 218 or dlowman@foundryumc.org

202.332.4010 ext. 251 or rmcdonald@foundryumc.org

Your Membership Status

A complete listing of Full Members of Foundry UMC is available for your review each Sunday in Fellowship Hall. You can also check the listing at the front office or you can call the office. If you have questions about your status, please contact Bob McDonald.

Listening for God: Evening for Prayer and Discernment

Our next prayer service in preparation for the upcoming church conference regarding Foundry's marriage policy will be on Wednesday, August 11. We will begin with light refreshments at 6:45 PM, with our prayer service commencing at 7 PM. Please save the date and come be in prayer together.

Foundry Second Annual Potluck Picnic – SAVE THE DATE!

Sunday, September 19, at Stead Park. We are looking for a lot of volunteers for the Picnic Ministry Team to help plan and work the day of the picnic. There are many ways YOU could help! Contact Sarah Stiles at sarahcstiles@gmail.com.

Foundry Entrée Dinners Are Returning!

This fall (September, October and November) the Fellowship Council will again be organizing groups for potluck Entrée Dinners. This is following the very successful first-run of dinners this past spring. They will provide an opportunity for you to get together and meet other Foundry folk with the only agenda being fellowship and food. More details soon!

Help Foundry Dedicate Chairs at Wesley

The Oxnam Memorial Chapel at Wesley Seminary recently underwent extensive renovations. We've been invited to contribute to this beautiful facility through the purchase of new chairs for the chapel. Contribution forms are available beginning this week at the Church office. Contact Dee Lowman for more information.

Learning & Fellowship Opportunities:

Theresa Thames-Lynch

202.332.4010 ext. 222 or tthames@foundryumc.org

Family Camp 2010

This year's theme is "Come To the Waters." We will spend the weekend at beautiful West River doing exactly that -- exploring our faith and enjoying fellowship by the river. If you have never been to Family Camp, join us this year. There is truly something for everyone! Save the dates, September 3-5. Registration forms are available outside the Main Office. See you at West River!

See what's going on at Foundry this week:
check out our online calendar!

Go to www.FoundryUMC.org
and click on Calendar at the top.