“We Welcome...”

UPCOMING SERVICES

I Am Foundry: Witnessing to the World

Does your life reflect your values? It's one thing to believe something and quite another for those beliefs to shape your life. Jesus spoke to this issue saying “where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” What we do with our lives—with our resources of time, talent, and treasure—show what is truly in our heart. Through this series, we will look at the ways that Foundry's Core Values shape our public witness. We'll also have an opportunity to personally consider the relationship between what we think we value and the way we live each day.

October 23: Luke 16:19-31 “We Cherish...”

October 30: Habakkuk 2:1-4, Luke 19:1-10 “We Worship...”

We welcome the hard work of prophecy.

Our close proximity to power gives us the chance to speak for the powerless.

We are mindful that prophets examine themselves closely before sharing their message with the world.

May our thoughts and actions reflect those of Christ.

May our humble courage further the cause of God's Kin-dom. Amen!

2016 – 2017 Theme

“Witness” means many things. It is something we do—we witness things that happen. It is something we share—we speak of what we have seen or experienced. It is something we are—we are witnesses. What do people see when they look at us? What do they see when they look at our church? What kind of witness do we share and embody? This coming year Foundry is exploring and practicing our call to be Christ’s witnesses, to look for Spirit’s activity in all areas of our lives, and to seek deeper integration of our words and actions. In this challenging time of transition and uncertainty in the history of our denomination and our nation, the call to see Christ and share Christ and be more like Christ as persons and as a congregation seems particularly urgent. What is next for Foundry? WITNESS.
