

Foundry's 2018 Scholar-in-Residence

Re-Imaging Our Practices of Interpretation Through the Gospel of Luke

Saturday, March 3, 2018 9:30 A.M. to 12:00 P.M.
Foundry UMC – Community Commons

Join Reverend Dr. Shively Smith, Foundry's 2018 Scholar in Residence, for the first of three lively discussions about the Gospel according to Luke. Dr. Smith brings in-depth knowledge and expertise as Assistant Professor of New Testament at Wesley Theological Seminary.

Dr. Smith received a B.A. from Fisk University (Summa Cum Laude and Phi Beta Kappa); has two master's degrees in theology; and a Ph.D. in New Testament from Emory University. Dr. Smith is the recipient of numerous fellowships and awards.

The Scholar in Residence program, launched in 2015, strengthens discipleship by inviting experts to present, preach and engage with Foundry.