FOUNDRY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

11:15 A.M. | WORSHIP CELEBRATION ONLINE

Welcome

Foundry Church has been serving downtown Washington and the wider world since 1814. Foundry is a Reconciling Congregation, affirming the call of the gospel of Jesus Christ to be in ministry with all people of all races, gender identities, sexualities, ages, immigration status, and physical conditions. We are all on a spiritual journey and we want you to feel welcome here. Please visit www.foundryumc.org for more information about our congregation, submit prayer requests, and let us know you've been with us in worship today.

REFERENCES TO GOD

References to God in traditional prayers and hymns may sometimes be gender-specific. As we pray and sing together, you are invited to substitute terms that reflect your understanding of the full inclusiveness of the spirit of God. You are also invited to sing hymns and speak parts of the services, such as the Lord's Prayer, in your native tongue.

CARE AND PRAYER

Please fill out the Virtual Prayer request cards at <https://www.foundryumc.org/prayer>. Our Clergy and prayer team will follow up with you.

INVITATIONS TO ONLINE PARTICIPATION

As we worship together virtually today, we invite you to gather the following items:

- A candle and, if needed, a way to light it.
- A bowl or vessel of water.
- Your preferred Bible or Bible app.
- A picture or pictures of your loved ones who've died and who's memories you wish to celebrate this All Saints Sunday.

Choose This Day

"Best of all, God is with us!" In a time of uncertainty, John Wesley's dying words are the one, sure thing: God is with us, extending grace sufficient for every time of need. And yet we so often look elsewhere for support and sustenance. Throughout this series, we will explore the choices that are before us—weighty choices that affect not only our own lives but the lives of others. And, together as a community of faith, we will engage a simple daily practice to connect us as we remain physically distant and also remind us of God's love and presence in our lives—no matter what may be happening in the world. Join us and find support for the living of these days.

Reception of New Members

One Voice: Do you, as Christ's body, the church, reaffirm both your rejection of sin and your commitment to Christ? If so, please say "we do."

Many Voices: I do.

Will you nurture one another in the Christian faith and life and include these persons now before you in your care?

With God's help we will proclaim the Good News and live according to the example of Christ. We will surround them with a community of love and forgiveness, that they may grow in their trust of god, and be found faithful in their service to others. We will pray for them, that they may be true disciples who walk in the way that leads to life.

Members of the household of God, I commend these persons to your care. Do all in your power to increase their faith, confirm their hope, and perfect them in love.

We give thanks for all that God has already given you and welcome you in Christian love. As members together with you in the body of Christ and in this congregation of The United Methodist Church, we renew our covenant faithfully to participate in the ministries of the church by our prayers, presence, gifts, service, our witness that in everything we do God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. Amen.

New Members/ Baptism

Scott Teribury

Scott Teribury grew up in a military family where he lived across the United States. He's been a DC resident for 7 years and an on-and-off visitor at Foundry for about 5 years. Scott's an avid soccer player and works part-time for District Sports; a city-wide adult recreational soccer organization. He's also a Realtor with The Freeman Group at McWilliams Ballard, Inc. Scott attended Christopher Newport University earning a degree in English and Business. In addition to soccer Scott enjoys running and music.

Lesley Boswell

DMV resident since 2008 (can I say I'm from here yet?). Soon-to-be cat parent. Wife, nurse. COVID is real, wear a mask. Raised in the UMC.

Bert Keidel

Bert Keidel was born and raised in Baltimore and has studied and worked in and on countries and subjects in East Asia, especially China. He currently teaches related subjects at the George Washington University. He has a teenage daughter, Savi Keidel, and he likes to go to Maine for holidays.

Bert was raised an Episcopalian, but became a Methodist in 1983 and is transferring to Foundry from Dumbarton UMC in Georgetown.

Suzanne McCarthy

I feel blessed to be married to Joe for 31 years, and we have the blessing of 3 daughters (all who live in DC). I retired 3 years ago after a 25 year career in higher education, I enjoy cooking, gardening, yoga and reading.

Rev. Joe McCarthy

I am blessed by faith, family and over fifty years as pastor, priest, educator, spiritual companion (director), and writer.

Currently, a good bit of soul, heart, study and time go into a weekly blog I offer: “frankly speaking” spirituality for the street.

Mindy and Justin Van Wart

Mindy: I’m a Colorado native who’s been falling in love with Virginia these last 5 months of living in Arlington, and I’m in grad school for art therapy.

Justin: I grew up around the states as the son of an air force nurse and become a Christian when I was ~15. I work for the USDA and have been proudly and gratefully married to my college sweetheart for 15 years.

Suzanne Waldron

I retired from an exciting career in Social Work and with the American Red Cross, Blood Services.

Now , learning about Florida native landscaping and trying to keep up with at least some of the thousands of newly published books.
