Foundry Church has been serving downtown Washington and the wider world since 1814. Foundry is a Reconciling Congregation, affirming the call of the gospel of Jesus Christ to be in ministry with all people of all races, gender identities, sexualities, ages, immigration status, and physical conditions. We are all on a spiritual journey and we want you to feel welcome here. Please join us for refreshments in Community Commons after the worship service and visit our welcome desk for more information about our faith community.

REFERENCES TO GOD

References to God in traditional prayers and hymns may sometimes be gender-specific. As we pray and sing together, you are invited to substitute terms that reflect your understanding of the full inclusiveness of the spirit of God. You are also invited to sing hymns and speak parts of the services, such as the Lord's Prayer, in your native tongue.

FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN

We welcome children to remain with their families during worship. Additionally, child care is available from 8:45 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. in the Child Care Center for infants through 2-year-olds. Children from age 3 through 5th grade are invited to participate in Children's Worship offered at both Sunday morning services and starting shortly before the sermon.

SUNDAY SCHOOL IS DROP-IN FRIENDLY

Please check the Today at Foundry page for adult and children's classes.

ACCESSIBILITY

Large-print bulletins and United Methodist hymnals are available. Please check with an usher for these materials. Hearing assistance devices are found at the sound desk in the sanctuary. Sign language interpretation is provided at the 11:15 a.m. service on the pulpit side of the sanctuary.

CARE AND PRAYER

If you would like to request prayer, please fill out the prayer request card found in the back of the pews and place it in the offering plate or leave it at the welcome desk located in Community Commons.

“BLESSING AND CHALLENGE”

November Series: “Becoming Beloved”

“Do to others as you would have them do to you.” This teaching of Jesus, often called The Golden Rule, is one of the most well-known and universally applicable phrases in the Gospel. Found in what is called the Sermon on the Plain in the Gospel according to Luke, the sermon is focused on how we treat one another. Throughout this series, we will study teachings from Jesus’ famous sermon as we take an honest look at ourselves and our community. How do we treat one another? How do we create obstacles to becoming the Beloved Community we long for? Where are we called to do and to be better? Join us for this important study and reflection on becoming beloved.

We gather, with the company of the faithful:

those who know the way to the kin-dom and those who are just beginning their pilgrimage.

We gather, remembering the ones we call saints:

those who made compassion their day job, and those who have no day named after them.

We gather, praising God for all who have shaped our faith:

those who showed us the dance steps of heaven, and those who taught us to play the instruments of joy.

JOHANNES BRAHMS

Selig sind, die da Leid tragen, denn sie sollen getröstet werden.

Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall have comfort.

Die mit tränen säen, werden mit Freuden ernten.

They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

MATTHEW 5:4

Sie gehen hin und weinen und tragen edlen Samen, und kommen mit Freuden und bringen ihre Garben.

An Invitation To The Sacrament Of Holy Communion Confession And Pardon

Ginger Gaines Cirelli
and Ben Roberts

Merciful God,
we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart.
We have failed to be an obedient church.
We have not done your will,
we have broken your law,
we have rebelled against your love,
we have not loved our neighbors,
and we have not heard the cry of the needy.
Forgive us, we pray.
Free us for joyful obedience,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

REQUIEM: Ila. Denn alles Fleisch es ist wie Gras

JOHANNES BRAHMS

*Denn alles Fleisch es ist wie Gras
Und alle Herrlichkeit des Menschen
wie des Grases Blumen;
Das Gras ist verdorret und die
Blume abgefallen.*

Behold, all flesh is as the grass,
and all the goodliness of man is
as the flower of grass;
For low, the grass with'reth, and
the flower thereof decayeth.

PETER 1: 24

*So seid nun geduldig.
Lieben Brüder.
bis auf die Zukunft des Herrn.
Siehe ein Ackermann wartet auf die kösliche Frucht der Erde und ist geduldig darüber, bis er
empfahe den Morgenregen und Abendregen. So seid geduldig.*

Now, therefore, be patient, O my brethren, unto the coming of Christ. See how the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receives the early rain and the later rain.
So be ye patient.

*Denn alles Fleisch es ist wie Gras

Aber des Herrn Wort bleibt in

Behold, all flesh is as the grass,

Program notes, Brahms Requiem

Completed in 1869, Johannes Brahms described his most ambitious vocal composition as “a work in the manner of the Roman Catholic Requiem Mass, but in the German language and with a text from the Bible”. Brahms was inspired to compose a Requiem after the death of his musical mentor, Robert Schumann in 1857, and the death of his mother is 1865. A well-known hymn tune is the underlay to the Requiem, heard in the opening choral phrase “Selig sind”, and repeated multiple times throughout the course of the work. Overall, Brahms’s Requiem is a Biblical song, or a series of them enlarged into a symphonic structure.

What is L'Enfance Du Christ?

The Childhood of Christ is a collaboration between Foundry's Music, Discipleship, and Social Justice Ministries with IN Series, a DC based opera-theater company focused on works promoting social justice and community betterment. This music and theater project invites the entire community to participate in diverse ways in the process of creating and performing an oratorio focused on immigration, migration, and hospitality – exploring the nexus of faith, art, and justice in an interactive and immersive experience. There are many ways that you can participate, on and off the stage, and we invite you to take part in the following opportunities.

LEARNING IN: L'ENFANCE DU CHRIST LED BY IN SERIES DIRECTORS AND COLLABORATORS

Learning In Session 2, Today in Room 202, 12:30p.m.

This learning experience explores the meeting place of faith and art, looking at how the two have joined throughout history, how the act of making art can be a spiritual practice, and how mystical and cathartic revelation can be led by an artistic experience beyond language.

Learning In Session 3, November 10 at 12:30p.m.

This learning experience looks at how the making of art is inherently a political act, and how its spiritual core makes it a powerful force for enacting social change. The conversation will look at historic examples of art being central to the journey towards greater justice, and explore ways we might engage art as a key tool in seeking radical hospitality.

Learning In Session 4, November 17 at 12:30p.m.

This final session asks participants to learn with their senses and not with their minds. Through making and experiencing diverse collaborative art forms, the session invites a hands-on creative, spiritual, and meditative experience.
